Meals are provided on a donation basis. The Thursday evening meal is available from 5:00-6:30 p.m. Meals are served at 12 noon and 5 p.m. on Friday and Saturday. On Sunday the noon meal is at 12 noon and is available on a carry-out basis for those who wish to leave immediately.

Children

Child care is provided for pre-school children during the morning and afternoon sessions on Friday and Saturday, and on Sunday morning. During the evening sessions the nursery will be available; however, it will be unsupervised. Parental supervision of the nursery during the evening session is required. Location of child care: Jonathan Alder High School

Children (K-6th grades) will enjoy a high-energy weekend packed full of activities during the morning and afternoon sessions on Friday and Saturday, and on Sunday morning. The theme will be centered on learning to be God-followers. The experience will include joining a 150-voice choir. A small donation is appreciated to cover the cost of crafts. Location of children's activities: Jonathan High School.

Jr. Youth (7th & 8th grades) will participate in a variety of fast-paced activities designed for fun and for spiritual impact. Included in the weekend are some off-campus social events just for them. A small donation is appreciated to cover the costs of the outings.

Dress

Dress at this event varies from casual to Sunday best. Please avoid attire which is overly casual or considered immodest by some.

Translation

Simultaneous translation of the messages in Spanish is provided through a listening system with receiver earphones.

CD/Tape Recordings of Sessions

Audio tape and CD recordings of conference messages will be offered during the conference and later by mail by Bradley Maust, 1300 Oak Dale Rd., Salisbury, PA 15558; Phone: 814-662-2866; email: emaust@yahoo.com

THURSDAY

A Taste of Missions

Gymnasium (7:00 p.m.)

Everyone is invited to this inspirational meeting sponsored by Rosedale Mennonite Missions. Join us in celebrating the goodness of God as we hear testimonies from RMM missionaries about how the gospel is being spread around the world. This is an excellent opportunity to see how your support is making a difference, and to learn about projections for future RMM ministry. A reception featuring ethnic snacks and a chance to meet RMM missionaries will follow the program in the rear of the gymnasium.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

In addition to the youth sessions on Friday and Saturday, youth social activities are scheduled for two nights immediately after the dismissal of the general sessions. Both activities will conclude at 11:00 p.m.

Friday evening - Youth will gather at Jonathan Alder Junior High School, less than a mile (south) on Rt. 42 from the high school for basketball, volleyball, and table games. Because of close proximity, transportation will not be provided. Pizza, chips and pop will be provided. Cost is $6 per person.

Saturday evening - Youth will meet at Shiloh Mennonite Church for an evening of comedy and ice cream. 321, an improv comedy group, will entertain with hilarity followed by ice cream sundaes. Cost is $6 per person. Once again, due to close proximity, youth will need to provide their own transportation. Check out 321 at www.321improv.com.
